Community Update

What is the image on page 1 of the newsletter? Please ask around if the picture I have used on the first page of this newsletter is unfamiliar to you. It is a character that resonates with me and perhaps others. Make it a conversation starter on Sunday.

January was a busy month. I heard a few people say that it felt like we did a whole year in those weeks.

The dates and ideas for socials this year will be advertised here and on the Community Announcement Group. In February we will gather in the park for pancakes on 15 February, in advance of Ash Wednesday which is on 18 February this year. During April we are planning a social that will be an opportunity to play tennis and braai.

The first '5th Sunday' is Palm Sunday (Sunday 29 March) and we will be doing a Meditation Workshop. A meditation workshop is an opportunity for one to contemplate and reflect on Scripture. It is a time of quietening the mind and turning inward towards your own heart, the place where your faith lives, to nurture your soul. We do this not to deny reality, but to refresh our spirits such that we can be strengthened to do the loving work of God.

We are working to get the following documents up onto our website. Please look out for them.

- Finance Request Form
- Finance Summary for 2025
- Safe Guarding Policy Document
