Community Update

During March we continued our journey towards Easter commemorating International Women's Day on 8 March. The graphic on page 1 of this newsletter is for all women - I hope you know how much you are celebrated and appreciated at We are Church. It is also for Bert, who is our number 1 Charlie Brown fan.

On 8 March, Xana McCauley, who is a veteran women's activist, preached on "Who was the Samaritan Woman at the Well?" Here is the link to the sermon: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4ACiYFEhiOA&t=930s>. Thank you Xana.

This is a picture of Lee-Anne celebrating 10 years of being ! Congratulations Lee-Anne. We celebrate with you. Safe, seen and celebrated.

On Sunday 22 March Jonathan preached on Resurrection. It was really wonderful to be able to Q&A with him during and after the service. We are very blessed to have such depth of wisdom in our community. Here is the link to that service: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Za5F7C2f_ZE

On 31 March about 30 of us gathered for a time of Reflective Meditation. If anyone would like to receive the notes, please get hold of Nicola.

I have been informed that the BBC Documentary on We are Church will be aired on 1 May. I will send more details as I receive them.

Something else that has happened twice now is our JAMMING SESSIONS!

Bernice is facilitating a monthly jamming session so that our singers and musos are ready for Christmas. It is the most wonderful thing to witness.

They arrive, they take over my lounge, I go upstairs and they make music. It is glorious to listen to, so watch this space, WAC-ers. CAROLS is set to ROCK!
